Report on World Kindness Day Celebration – 13th November 2024
Government Polytechnic, Siwan

World Kindness Day was celebrated on 13th November 2024 at Government Polytechnic, Siwan, with enthusiasm and a meaningful message of compassion, empathy, and goodwill. The event aimed to encourage students and staff to practise kindness in their daily lives and create a supportive and positive campus community.

Lighting of the Lamp

The programme began with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp, symbolizing the spread of light, hope, and kindness. Principal Dr. Praveen Pachauri, along with Events Co-ordinator Mr. Vicky Kumar Baitha, senior faculty members, and student representatives, participated in this auspicious ceremony.

Welcome Address

Following the lamp-lighting ceremony, Principal Dr. Praveen Pachauri delivered the welcome address. He warmly welcomed everyone and emphasized that academic excellence should go hand in hand with good character, empathy, and a willingness to help others. He also appreciated the organizing committee for arranging the programme.

Key Activities and Programmes

A series of engaging activities was organized under the guidance of Events Co-ordinator Mr. Vicky Kumar Baitha. The main activities included:

- The Kindness Pledge: Students and faculty members pledged to include small acts of kindness in their daily routines and treat everyone with respect.
- Appreciation Note Drive: Students wrote and shared thank-you notes with non-teaching staff, security personnel, and campus cleaners, recognizing their valuable contributions.
- Poster-Making Competition: Students created posters with thoughtful messages and artwork promoting kindness, compassion, and goodwill.

These activities created a positive atmosphere on campus and encouraged students to understand the importance of kindness through simple, everyday actions.

Vote of Thanks

The programme concluded with a Vote of Thanks proposed by Events Co-ordinator Mr. Vicky Kumar Baitha. He expressed sincere gratitude to Principal Dr. Praveen Pachauri for his continuous support, to the faculty members for their presence, and to the students for their enthusiastic participation.

Conclusion

The World Kindness Day celebration at Government Polytechnic, Siwan, was a meaningful success. It reinforced the values of compassion, respect, empathy, and social responsibility, reminding everyone that even small acts of kindness can make a significant difference in the lives of others.
